

January 8, 2025

From: Dr. Al Nunez, D.C.

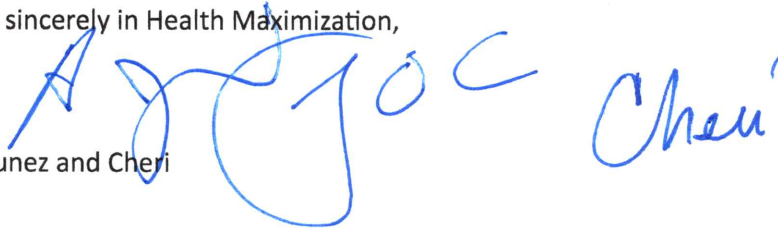

To: My dear patients and friends

This letter is to inform you that my lease expires on January 31, 2025, and our new landlord has decided not to renew my lease as he has the right to do so. Due to the late notice of this news, it has been difficult to find an appropriate location at a reasonable rate and so I will be vacating our office as of that date. In addition, I have been in the practice of chiropractic for over 41 years and although I still love treating our wonderful patients my body is not worn out, but it is complaining in the shoulders and hands significantly more than it used to. I am planning to take at least a month off to see what I want to do with the practice. I will keep you all apprised of my progress and plans as I meditate and cogitate about our future. You've all been wonderful, and I hope you continue your quest for maximum health, vim and vigor. I've learned so much over the years about myself and how to heal the body from top to bottom, side to side and front to back.

I love you all and call us if you have any questions. We will keep our phone number active for awhile and Cheri will be looking for any inquiries from y'all.

Yours sincerely in Health Maximization,

Dr. Nunez and Cheri
